HE President of BSA, Dr. Abdul Basit Turki Sa'eed delivered a speech in which he praised the role of BSA employees saying: "your fellow brothers face two challenges, the first is how to effectively participate in re-establishing institutional conventions and traditions, and decision-makers' legality of financial & administrative disposition so as to secure good conduct of public funds as well as good professional conduct since these were severely diminished due to occupation. The second task centers on fighting corruption and misconduct of public funds."

This was followed by handing out cash and in-kind awards to martyrs' families and to retired members of BSA staff, and to excellent employees and those who achieved higher academic degrees during 2007.
