

The Board of Supreme Audit

BSA President Chair Meeting of Council of Accounting and Auditing Standards

Dr. Abdul Basit Turki Saeed , the BSA president , chaired a meeting of the council of accounting and auditing standards. The meeting, held at the BSA headquarters, was attended by the deputy of the BSA president , a number of directors general in the BSA and a number of professional experts representing the directorates concerned ((the director general of Accounts in the Ministry of Finance , director general of the General Commission for Taxation , the director general of the Statistics and Researches Directorate in the Central Bank of Iraq, the director general of the Economic Directorate in the Ministry of Industry , the director general of the Economic Planning in the Ministry of Planning , the director general of the Administrative Directorate in the Commission of Integrity , a representative of the Accountants and Auditors Syndicate , university faculties from the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research , a representative of the Iraq Securities Commission and Iraq Stock Exchange acting manager)) .

During the meeting , the council's 2011 work plan was laid and discussed , the nationally applied accounting standards were developed and the accounting standards that Iraq's status require to adapt with the current developments were identified and a number of competent experts were assigned thereto.

The BSA pursued activating the council work for its important role in studying, laying, developing, approving accounting and auditing standards and expressing opinions concerning accounting and auditing laws and regulations drafts, cooperating with the scientific and professional foundations and organizations inside and outside Iraq.

Media center

The board of supreme audit