

Dr. Abdul Bassit Turki Saeed, President of the Board of Supreme Audit (BSA) has met in his office Mis Ginger Cros – the American Deputy Inspector General for the Iraqi Reconstruction – and the accompanied delegation.

During the meeting, they discussed the auditing results of the iraqi funds while the Provisional Coalition Authority and the American Defense Department had been received and disbursed from 9/4/2003 to 28/6/2004.

They discussed also the auditing of the projects executed by the american side funded by (the american donation) carrying out by both the Board of Supreme Audit and the American Inspector General Office, also they discussed cooperation ways to reach the joint results of this auditing.

BSA media center